Ballew is named police chief in Pontoon Beach

By GARY SCHNEIDER
Press-Record Editor

Pontoon Beach will have a new chief of police tomorrow night. Rosewell Bennett Jr., chief since 1972, has resigned the force to move to Florida.

The new chief is expected to be Sgt. N. Chet Ballew, 36, a veteran of the village police force since April 1972. Ballew has been sworn in as acting police chief of Village Clerk Mary Warren.

The village board will meet at 7 p.m. Tuesday in village hall and is expected to confirm Ballew's appointment by Village Board President Paul Bennett, brother of the former chief. The village board president says he expects no opposition.

Paul Bennett said his brother gave only about 10 days notice, but the board had expected some changes in the police department since the budget was drafted. "We knew last June we would have to lay a man off to make ends meet. We had an Aug. 1 deadline, but he (Chief Bennett) asked us to postpone that to Sept. 1 and said he was considering making a move."

"He then took a voluntary layoff so we wouldn't have to lay anyone off,"

Paul Bennett said. Rosewell Bennett resigned Sept. 2. He said his brother could return to duty when funds are available, but as a patrolman. Bennett noted, "I think Chet can handle the job. He can work with the people. We considered everyone on the police department for this appointment."

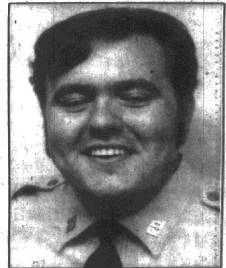

Asked how he felt about the job, Ballew answered, "Great. I didn't know I would get this appointment when he (Chief Bennett) left. You never know until the last minute."

Ballew said he is attempting to get his feet on the ground and is "still in the stage of trying to work up a plan to best suit the police department."

The department has been undergoing changes all year. Former chief Harold Denham was made a sergeant when Paul Bennett abolished the rank of assistant chief after the last village election.

Last week, Patrolman Michael Crouch resigned from the department, leaving one vacancy. "We're still one man short," Village Clerk Mary Warren noted.

The department has been hampered by a fund shortage which resulted in the passage of a new tax for police earlier this summer. However, funds from that tax will not be received until next summer's collection, so the department is likely to remain short-handed for the remainder of the fiscal year.

EOC closes its doors to press

By ROGER KRAMER

An "informal" meeting of the Madison County Economic Commission Board of Directors Thursday night in the commission's office in Alton may have been illegal, according to the Illinois Open Meetings Act.

EOC Board Chairman John Ervin said prior to Thursday's meeting that no members of the press would be invited to the meeting. No action was taken, but the legality of the meeting still is questionable, according to Madison County Assistant State's Attorney Marshall "Zeke" Smith, who was asked by the Press-Record.

A Press-Record reporter went to the Alton EOC office and attempted to attend the meeting, but was told by Ervin it was closed to the press and did not allow the reporter into the room where the board was meeting. Ervin said at that time the meeting was an informal meeting and issues discussed at the meeting would be acted upon in October.

Joseph Pupkash, a member of the EOC board and a former chairman of the board, said Friday that EOC Executive Director Ruben Williams and Board Chairman John Ervin reviewed the EOC's weatherization program for the board members.

The Illinois Department of Commerce and Community Affairs is currently auditing the DCCA-funded EOC programs for financial mismanagement and 291 homes weatherized by the EOC have to be checked and redone.

"There was no action taken at the meeting," Pupkash said. "If there was no action taken, it does not have to be an open meeting," he contended.

However, Assistant State's Attorney Smith disagrees. He said a meeting must be open even if there is no action taken, and he said the informal nature of the meeting does not exclude it from the Open Meetings Act.

"It doesn't matter if no action is taken at the meeting. If a group of them meet at a barbecue or at a tavern and discuss business, it's still a meeting and it is covered by the Open Meetings Act," Smith said.

Although the EOC is a not-for-profit corporation, the commission receives and administers state and federal funds and is held accountable to the DCCA. Pupkash still contended the EOC does not have to abide by the Open Meetings Act.

Brimberry trial delayed again

The trial of Thomas Brimberry, alleged mastermind of the elaborate embezzlement scheme which destroyed the Stix and Co. brokerage firm, has been postponed for a second time. It was to have started today.

The St. Louis trial, in which Brimberry, a former Granite Cityan, is charged with 11 counts of perjury during a grand jury investigation of the swindle, was originally set for Aug. 8, but was postponed upon request from Brimberry's attorneys.

First rescheduled for today, the trial has been delayed until Nov. 21. Brimberry's attorneys requested the delay, citing health problems suffered by one of Brimberry's attorneys as the reason.

After being convicted in May of attempting to impede the investigation by instructing Art Miller Jr. and Jerry Maers to destroy records relating to their Stix accounts and subordinated loans, Brimberry was sentenced in June to 10 years imprisonment.

That case, tried in Alton, is being appealed by Brimberry's attorneys, Rodney De Villiers of Oklahoma and Lawrence Fleming of St. Louis.

Quincy rezoning is endorsed

At the request of Granite City Steel, the Granite City Planning Commission unanimously endorsed the reclassification of all of Quincy Street from R-3 (single family residential zoning) to M-3 (heavy industrial) after a public hearing on the petition Thursday.

Few residents voiced opposition to the action, which allows Granite City Steel sole access to Quincy Street for the purpose of hauling molten slag from GC Steel's 20th Street facility to International Mill Service (IMS) on 21st St.

Attorney Leo Konzen of Granite City explained the petition to the planning commission, saying that GC Steel will "upgrade and maintain" Quincy Street and its intersections with 20th and 21st streets.

He also answered questions from residents who are concerned about the vibrations from large trucks carrying the slag, as well as the possibility of damage or fire which might occur if hot ashes from the slag hit homes or cars.

"Right now (the slag) is in 'cake' form," Konzen said, adding, "It will be transported in molten form to IMS in new vehicles on air-filled rubber tires."

Referring to the concern that vibrations from the trucks might cause damage to homes, Konzen said, "These vehicles weigh 200 tons when fully loaded. They will only be going five or six miles per hour."

Konzen further described the trucks as "a new type of mobile (vehicle) on rubber wheels that measures approximately 23 to 24 feet in the rear."

According to Konzen, the size of these vehicles necessitated the rezoning of Quincy St. "We are vacating (the residential area) to prevent travel as a safety factor."

Notices were sent to residents living in GS Steel-owned homes affected by the reclassification. Only two homes in the vicinity remain privately owned, but they are not located on Quincy St. Planning Commission Building In-

SIUE seeks $50 million

Requests for creating 520 more student housing units in existing buildings, funding for nursing and economic development programs, a new parking lot west of the new Sam M. Vadalabene athletic facility (the multipurpose building) and other improvements are contained in the budget and state funding request approved Thursday by the Southern Illinois University Board of Trustees.

Renaming of the multipurpose building after State Sen. Sam Vadalabene also was approved (see related editorial today).

The SIUE board, meeting at Edwardsville, approved a $266.2 million operating budget for the university's campuses at Edwardsville and Carbondale and the office of the chancellor. The budget is based on state appropriations and anticipated non-appropriated income for Fiscal Year 1984, which began July 1.

The budget reflects an increase of $10.9 million, or 4.3 percent over last year, and is based on estimated income of $172.8 million from the state and $93.4 million in non-appropriated funds.

Of the state appropriations, which account for about 65 percent of the total operating budget, the Carbondale campus will receive $121.8 million, an increase of 6.2 percent over last year, while the Edwardsville campus will receive nearly $50 million, an increase of 7.3 percent. The office of the chancellor will receive slightly more than $1 million, an increase of 4.9 percent. The figures include retirement fund contributions.

The increase in state appropriated funds provides salary increases of approximately 4.5 percent and cost increases of three percent.

The budget includes funds to upgrade engineering programs, for research and instructional equipment, to improve instruction in high enrollment demand areas and to enhance programs for economic development, a total of $1.8 million for SIUE and $493,000 for SIUC.

The state capital budget requests were among the lowest for the university system in recent years. The board had approved preliminary listings by each university in June, but had not approved a system priority listing for submission to the Illinois Board of Higher

Empty gas tank is a blessing

An empty gasoline tank may have saved the life of a Granite City woman at 7:45 p.m. Thursday.

A man forced his way into the auto of Talitha Jackson of the 700 block of North 20th Place at the Crossroads Plaza shopping center parking lot as she was preparing to drive away.

Holding a handgun to the side of her head, the intruder forced her to drive along West Pontoon Road to Route Three, where he noticed that the car was nearly out of fuel. He asked if the gauge was accurate, and was told that it was correct.

The man got out of the vehicle and began walking north along Route Three, a four-lane highway, commenting that he would "find another ride."

The abductor was of stocky build, about 6-1 tall, in his early 30s, with long dark-blond hair. He appeared to be under the influence of alcohol or drugs.

TIME and the R SYMBOL

In the days before type and the craft of printing, all recorded words were transcribed by hand. It was a laborious task. To speed it, short cuts or symbols, were developed to cut down repetitive words. Thus the symbol for Pharmacy was born. The R with a slash across the tail is from the Latin word Recipe meaning "to receive" as in instructions from a Physician to a Pharmacist.

Chili Cook-off will aid Kidney Foundation

There's more to a pot of prize winning chili than a hill of beans. In a few weeks, a winning bowl of "red" could bring in $400 cash and a trip to California. That's the top prize for the winner of the eighth annual Missouri Chili Cook-off, to benefit the National Kidney Foundation of Eastern Missouri and Metro-East, Inc.

This year, the all-day competition will be held on Oct. 8 at the parking lot of Westwood's Shopping Center in Clayton. The fiery competition will pit chili cooks from Missouri and Illinois, and as far away as Arkansas and Kentucky, against each other for first, second and third place prizes and a showmanship award. The public is being invited to review the results throughout the day and local celebrities will judge the competition at 3 p.m.

First place winner will receive a round-trip airline ticket for two to California, where he or she will represent Missouri in the International Chili Cook-off, and a $500-cash prize. Second place winner will receive a $200 cash-prize and third place will receive a $100 cash-prize.

Registration forms for the cook-off are available through the National Kidney Foundation, 8135 Forsyth, Clayton, Mo., 63106, or by calling 1-814-963-5658. The entry fee is $35.

Ballwin man wins $2 million

This metropolitan area has a major Illinois State Lottery lotto winner, Ralph Ballwin, Mo., who won $2,065,900 in last week's lotto by matching all six winning numbers.

A press conference celebrating his win was held at Suburban Liquors, 3405 Mississippi, Cahokia. Earlier, on Sept. 3, was introduced at a press conference in Chicago, Judith Nelson of Harwood Heights, Ill., will also collect $2,065,900, payable at a rate of $103,295 a year for 20 years.

The numbers 02, 20, 21, 24 and 26 were randomly drawn as the six numbers in the lotto drawing.

Because the lottery does not record the names of players when they buy tickets, the identity of the two new multi-millionaires was unknown. However, a computer run comparing all tickets purchased with the six winning numbers indicated that only two tickets had all six winning numbers.

Nicholas J. Jones, lottery superintendent, always recommends that grand prize winners notify the lottery of their identities immediately by phoning the lottery at its toll-free number, 1-800-252-8646.

If only one person had matched all six winning numbers in Saturday's election, that player would have received the guaranteed prize to a single winner of $4.5 million.

Multiple winners share the actual grand prize pool which, at the time of Saturday's drawing was just over $1.7 million, enough to purchase two 20-year annuities of $2,065,900 each.

The lottery superintendent said last week's prize became so large because it included money "rolled over" from the Aug. 27 drawing, in which there was no grand prize winner, and from last week's lotto ticket sales, which were more than $4.3 million. The previous week's sales were the highest in the lotto's seven-month history.

In addition to the two grand prize winners, 302 players matched five of the six winning numbers, and they will each collect $1,440.50.

An additional 15,484 players matched four of the six winning numbers, and they each will collect $41.50. The $2,065,900 grand prizes won by the two players are among the largest in lottery history. In May, Findlay Mahaffey of Matteson, Ill., won the largest prize of $3.6 million and two weeks ago three grand prize winners each won $2.3 million.

Jones suggested that players who won second and third prizes take their tickets to the agents from whom they purchased them.

Governor signs bills to protect workers

Governor James R. Thompson has signed a series of bills that deal with labor issues in Illinois, including several that concern wages and benefit matters. "State government must always be prepared to help workers in any capacity. These bills make changes in laws that will help those workers in a variety of ways and give them more protection in a changing economy," the governor said.

GUILTY PLEA TO CONDUCT CHARGE

Receiving a report of a car racing up and down the street squealing tires outside a residence in the 2300 block of Washington Avenue last week, an officer located a vehicle in the next block whose tire had fallen off and was being replaced by the driver. The car matched a description given police and Steven M. Pickett, 21, of 1942 Spruce St., was alleged to be the driver. Pickett was arrested and charged with disorderly conduct. He pleaded guilty in a court appearance and was fined a total of $135.

through these measures," he said. Thompson said he approved legislation that will enable the state to help employees recover wages they should have earned under the Minimum Wage Law. Under House Bill 1750, the Department of Labor can aid workers who bring lawsuits against employers charged with wage underpayment. The bill will give the Department the authority to levy punitive damages against an employer under a court order to pay lost wages to a worker.

Other bills the governor signed included: —HB 1520, a measure that requires the Labor Department each June to calculate the prevailing wage in Illinois counties and use that figure for local units of government in a county that have failed to determine a pay scale for projects in the area.

—Senate Bill 1150, which says that persons are entitled to unemployment insurance compensation if they leave their jobs because of known sexual harassment in guidelines regulating UI compensation.

—A measure that protects workers from reprisal from their employer after they've filed complaints or have testified on the behalf of another worker. HB 1738, says that employers can't take punitive action against an employee if he or she knows about the penalties involved in doing so.

—HB 967, a bill that says state's attorneys cannot refuse to handle wage claim litigation, a step that gives workers greater legal rights in obtaining wages that have been earned.

—Legislation that will enable workers to receive the monetary equivalent of earned vacation time after leaving employment. HB 966 says that only collective bargaining agreements can block the payment of vacation time wages.

—HB 880, a measure that clarifies language in the Wage Payment and Collection Act, thereby giving workers in Illinois greater protection through easier access to employment rules and regulations. Each bill takes effect Jan. 1, 1994.

County confident it can win double-bunking suit

By JIM WOODCOCK
Madison County officials are expressing confidence that the county can win the jail "double-bunking" suit filed against it by the Illinois Department of Corrections.

"I don't see how we can lose," county buildings committee chairman Herbert Milton, Granite City, said at his committee's meeting last week. "They're double-bunking all over the county. How can they pick one county?"

In addition, "Assistant State's Attorney Marshall 'Zeke' Smith also says he likes the county's chances of winning the suit."

The county's attempt to negotiate a settlement with the state failed last week. The DOC had filed the lawsuit in August 1992.

Smith said the trial could take place any time between October and January, depending on how hard the attorney general's office pushes the matter. Third Judicial Circuit Judge Philip Rarrick will preside.

The controversy stems from the practice of placing two prisoners in one cell block — something which Madison County officials have been forced to do on occasion since the new jail opened in 1980.

When two or more share a cell at the county jail, it is in violation of a state code which demands that each prisoner have 50 square feet of space.

However, the state code only applies to jails built after the law was enacted, such as the new county jail. Meanwhile, older jails that may be in poorer condition than the new county jail are exempt from the new code.

"We built a tip-top jail here, but unfortunately we built it too small," Smith said. "But in places like Carlinville, for instance, they're crowding them into what I'd consider a dungeon. The county jail has a capacity of 110 inmates when it does not double-bunk inmates."

Smith said that the law preventing double-bunking is questionable. "Something could be said for both sides, but the law has to be changed, in my mind," Smith said. "I think the county's chance of winning this is pretty good, but the legislature has to change this law."

"Right now," he added, "the law is 100 percent against us."

Smith noted that the state standards regarding double-bunking actually go beyond federal restrictions. However, the major complaint of county officials is that they have been stuck with the code, while older jails in poor condition can squeeze as many prisoners in as possible.

In the county's last-ditch effort to settle with the DOC in August, State's Attorney Don Weber made a three-part offer to the state.

Weber told the state that double-bunking would only be done when necessary, and only with the prisoner's consent — but only if the DOC dropped its lawsuit against the county.

But when the DOC refused that offer, Smith said the trial was inevitable. Smith also added that he thinks the state is singling Madison County out on the double-bunking issue.

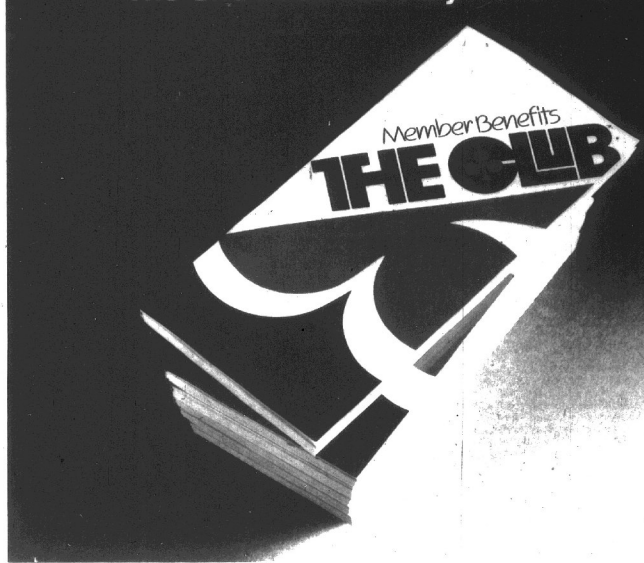

"It seems we're the only ones involved," Smith said. "They're putting all of the heat on us."

Ironically, the state of Illinois, ordered to stop early release of prisoners, a move it had taken to ease its own crowded conditions, has suggested contracting with counties for space in their jails for state prisoners.

Tragedy reflects life's complexity

There was extreme irony in last week's tragedy, which occurred in the Chain of Rocks Canal at a point near the Lewis and Clark Park.

Four inmates of the East St. Louis Community Correctional Center were cleaning up trash at the state-maintained park while they were under Illinois Corrections Department supervision. Several waded into the water, forming a human chain, to remove additional debris seen floating in the canal.

One of the prisoners, 22 years old, who had served nearly two years for armed robbery and armed violence, stepped off a ledge into deep water and began to struggle to keep afloat.

Another prisoner, 24, had served one year for voluntary manslaughter and would have become eligible for parole Sept. 19. Although an outcast from the general citizenry due to his past conduct, he responded to the situation by swimming into the current and trying to save his drowning companion.

The older inmate failed to remain on the surface, and gave up his own life in the rescue attempt. The other members of the work party were returned to the detention facility. Within five hours, the bodies of both victims had been recovered from the water.

The tragedy was at an end, adding another chapter to the history of community and governmental projects assigned to those in the pre-release program (prisoners who have less than six months remaining to serve in prison).

But the series of events on Sept. 7 will live on as an illustration of the complex nature of life and people. Society may have given up on R. C. McNeal, and with some justification. But he had not given up on himself, and tried valiantly to perform an act of kindness and heroism.

Is U.S. justice too slow?

Chief Justice Warren Burger rarely misses an opportunity to complain about the endless cycle of appeals which the courts are allowing to delay final judgment in criminal cases.

To his catalog of flagrant examples he can now add the case of Jimmy Lee Gray, who was recently executed in the Mississippi gas chamber for a murder committed in 1978.

Gray was convicted of sexually abusing a 3-year-old girl and then drowning her in a mud puddle and throwing her body off a bridge. At the time, he was on parole from a sentence in Arizona for murdering a 16-year-old girl.

Defense lawyers kept Gray's case shuffling through the state and federal court system for seven years. It was reviewed by more than 50 judges and went before the U.S. Supreme Court four times.

The appeals were based on issues of law and procedure. At no time was there any dispute over whether Gray had done what he was accused of doing.

Now, what do we make of a judicial system that involves 50 different judges in the process of convicting and punishing a criminal and takes seven years to do it?

Toward the end, even Gray's mother was urging state officials to let the death sentence be carried out.

The Bill of Rights calls for speedy trials in criminal cases, and forbids cruel and unusual punishment. There is reason to question whether our indecisive criminal justice system is capable of meeting its constitutional responsibilities.

... Brimberry a case in point

The delays in taking Thomas Brimberry to trial for his alleged part in the collapse of the Stix and Co. stock brokerage in St. Louis is indeed unfortunate.

The trial on the U.S. district charges in Missouri has been set back since May. It appeared the trial may start Aug. 8, but that was set back to Sept. 12. Now, illness of one of Brimberry's attorneys has caused a postponement until November and, of all times, Thanksgiving week, when the holiday endangers the start of the trial.

Meanwhile, evidence is getting old. Witnesses' memories are fading. Property owned by Brimberry is being sold. All in all, the chance for a fresh, complete and fair trial is fading with time.

Vadalabene deserving of honor

We were happy to hear that the Southern Illinois University Board decided Thursday to name the new multipurpose building at SIU-Edwardsville after State Sen. Sam Vadalabene (D-Edwardsville).

The building will officially be known as the Sam M. Vadalabene Center for Health, Recreation and Physical Education.

Kind of a long name, but we are sure the students and faculty will come up with a nickname, such as the Vadalabene Center. Vadalabene is tickled pink. "It's quite an honor having a building named after you," he told the Press-Record. "That has to be the greatest thing that happens to anybody."

In order to name the building after the hard-working legislator who fought so hard for its funding, the SIU Board had to delete its restriction which forbade the naming of a building after a living "public" person. Hereafter, buildings and facilities may be named "for notable members of the university faculty, staff and student body; for distinguished former members of the board; for donors of substantial funds; or for public persons of the state or nation or of any country."

The SIUE Building and Facility Naming Committee also approved the new name.

A public release by the university said, "The growth and development of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville has been intertwined with the public service career of Sen. Sam M. Vadalabene. Sen. Vadalabene's interest in the university, its endeavors and initiatives is well known."

"Over the years, he has supported legislation beneficial to the development of SIUE — legislation providing the physical facilities and operating funds necessary for the institution to serve the southwestern region of Illinois. Even in difficult times, as in recent years of limited state resources, Sen. Vadalabene has never wavered in his belief in the value of SIUE to the region nor in his commitment to assist the university in the accomplishment of its mission."

"In large part, the existence of the new structure at SIUE is a tribute to his many years of vigorous pursuit of funding for construction of the facility," the statement continued.

Vadalabene added, "This is the highest honor that ever came to me in my lifetime. That's about as big (an honor) as you can get in one life."

From the Press-Record, a hearty congratulations Sam.

In light of the United States' and the U.S.S.R.'s war of wits lately, Quad-Cityans, shopping at Crossroads Plaza during the weekend, were asked if they thought the Korean Airlines incident would have an effect on the Soviet's KGB policies. Their reactions follow:

Ron Clark, Granite City

"As for the airline thing, I don't think they had a right to shoot it down even though it strayed over their area. As for the rest of it, our relations are bad right now — because of the airline thing. I do see the KGB furthering its influence though."

Mike Sweeney, Granite City

"I think the KGB is involved in the Middle East, Central America and even in the shooting of the pope. It's obvious from all the trouble that they've been causing in the world. Although, right now because of the airline thing, there probably won't be an increase of KGB activities."

Mike Papp, Granite City

"Oh, I don't doubt that they're (the Soviets) are aware of what we're doing. Likewise, I'm sure the reciprocal is true. Yes, I do think they're involved in Central American and the Middle East. Unfortunately, this airline thing is like anything else. Right now everyone's talking about it but sooner or later everybody will forget about it."

Stan Martinez, Granite City

"Sure, I believe the Russians are behind it. They've got interest in Central America and the Middle East. And, too, even with the shooting down of the airliner, it'll (KGB infiltration) probably increase."

How to tell pork is cooked

To the Editor:

During the Madison County Fair, a lot of people enjoyed pork steaks and pork burgers from the Pork Producers' stand. I didn't hear one complaint, however; when I was asked how I knew when cuts of pork took thin to use a thermometer with were done. So I thought that maybe more than one person was wondering but didn't want to ask.

The National Pork Producers' Council has had extensive research done on preparing pork cuts at different temperatures and periods. These are the results they found in moist heat cooking methods.

Brisket: Chops, fresh, 3 1/2 to 4 1/2 inches, 45 to 60 minutes; spareribs, 1 1/2 hours; backribs, 1 1/2 hours; country-style ribs, 1 1/2 to 2 hours; tenderloins-whole, 1 1/2 to 1 lb., 45 to 60 minutes, sliced, 1/2 inch, 30 minutes; shoulder steaks, 3/4 inch, 45 to 60 minutes; cubes, 1 to 1 1/4 inches, 4 to 60 minutes.

Cooking in liquid: Fresh spareribs, country-style ribs, hocks, 2 to 2 1/2 hours; smoked-nam, country or country-style, 10 to 16 lbs., 4 1/2 to 5 hours; half, 5 to 8 lbs., 3 to 4 hours; arm picnic shoulder, 5 to 8 lbs., 3 1/2 to 4 hours; shoulder roll, 2 to 4 lbs., 2 to 2 1/2 hours; hocks, 2 to 2 1/2 hours.

Next month I will discuss the results from dry heat cooking methods.

HUD approves $3.4 million In Madison County grants

U.S. Sen. Charles Percy (R-Ill.) announced Friday that the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) has approved $3.4 million in Community Development Block Grant funding for Madison County for 1985.

Percy also is supporting legislation which would keep the county eligible for additional funding in upcoming years, striking down a new

HUD formerly under which only larger cities, such as Granite City, would receive funds and the remainder of the county would have to fight over a smaller amount.

The $3.4 million approval announced Friday will be used for housing rehabilitation, economic development, public improvements, street and sidewalk projects and water and sewer improvements.

Foster parents say tasks challenging and meaningful

A spokesman said today that the Illinois Department of Children and Family Services is "in great need of foster parents in the Madison county area."

"Foster parents play a vital role with the agency in providing a loving and nurturing environment for children of all ages."

"In addition, foster parents are able to handle a wide range of emotional behavior problems, work with the agency in helping children and adolescents in their care move toward a permanent home situation, and accept children of neglecting and — or abusive parents."

"To qualify as foster parents, one must be at least 21 years of age, have adequate income and housing to meet the needs of an additional child, provide current medical information, submit three references to attest to your moral character, be willing to be fingerprinted to meet criminal background check, and attend pre-service training."

"Foster parenting brings many rewards to a family. We have been told. As foster parents, you are the integral part of a child's emotional and physical development, as well as being a member of a team that helps secure a permanent family for a child."

"Foster parents also feel an inner joy as they see a child smile for the first time, or add sparkle to their eyes. Foster parents also serve in a teaching capacity in helping children learn to trust other people — showing them that adults can be responsible and reasonable."

"They help the child see that problems can be solved by working together and, by having positive family interaction, they help build a child's self-esteem."

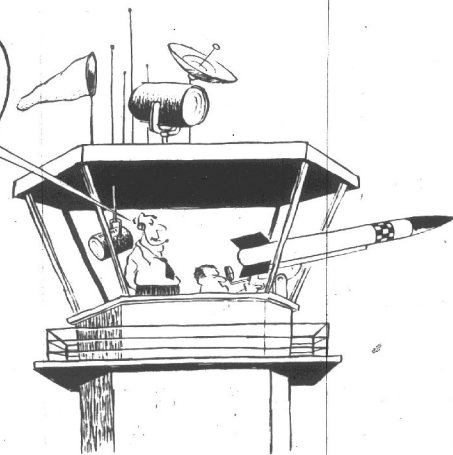

"You, too, can be a member of this team that can add meaning and purpose to your life as well as your family's life," the spokesman concluded in urging local families to volunteer.

"For more information on foster care, Quad-Cityans may contact the Illinois Department of Children and Family Services at 876-8888 and ask for Pat."

SIUE seeks $50 million

Education as part of the resource allocation and management program.

The requests for the SIUE system total $5.5 million, including $6.6 million for projects at Carbondale and $2.9 million for the Edwardsville campus.

University officials said most of the projects are concentrated on badly-needed remodeling and renovation to preserve existing facilities, with energy production, or with food production and research. They said the low level of state capital budget funding reflects current fiscal limitations caused by the recession and by changing federal funding policies.

The highest system priority has been assigned to high need alarm and storage remodeling at Carbondale ($275,000) and the second priority is the corrective renovation of construction deficiencies in Buildings II and III at Edwardsville ($300,000). The third priority is replacement of roofs at both institutions ($375,000 at Carbondale and $418,500 at SIUE). Fourth priority was assigned to acquisition and remodeling of property in Springfield for the School of Medicine $2,572,400 for the property and $394,700 for remodeling.

Additional projects on the priority list deal with increasing handicapped access to buildings, developing instructional or repair facilities and maintenance and renovation projects. Energy conservation projects $1.1 million at SIUE and $414,000 at the School of Medicine) and food production projects ($2 million at SIUE) are listed separately at the request of the IBHE.

Other capital requests are $238,600 for renovation and remodeling at the East St. Louis center, $592,100 for remodeling and expansion of the East St. Louis satellite dental clinic, and $10,000 for remodeling the Alton campus.

In other action Thursday, the SIU Board authorized the Edwardsville campus to continue development of plans for creating as many as 520 additional on-campus single student housing spaces by renovating and converting existing apartments at the Tower Lake housing complex.

Authority also was granted to the president of SIUE to select and recommend to the board an architectural and engineering firm to review the proposed project, access and refine cost estimates and provide a recommendation on the project's feasibility.

It would call for renovating 15 existing single student apartments by replacing the kitchen and dining area with a second bathroom and a third bedroom, thereby increasing apartment occupancy from four to six students, a total occupancy increase of 316 students.

It also would call for constructing a dining hall adjacent to the Tower Lake Commons Building which would manage 948 meal constructs from the occupants of the renovated apartments. Another 38 apartments would be converted from family units to single student units for an occupancy increase of 182 students.

One additional student occupant would be added to 12 existing three-bedroom apartments, furniture would be purchased for the 520 additional single student spaces.

Site improvements, such as parking, sidewalks and lighting, would be included in the estimates.

The board also approved plans and specifications for construction of a parking lot west of the Vandalia Center and authorized officers of the university to receive bids for the work. The Executive Committee was authorized to award contracts. The estimated $10 million construction cost will be paid from parking and traffic revenue funds.

The project will provide 550 parking spaces, including bus slots, installation of high mount lighting and control gates and modifications to existing walls and drive to provide access to the new lot.

Amendments to the SIUE Resource Allocation and Management Program planning documents for Fiscal Year 1985 which seek additional funding for nursing and economic development also were approved Thursday.

The university is resubmitting to the IBHE a request for $42,000 for supporting funds for the School of Nursing's undergraduate outreach program in Olney.

The School of Nursing has been delegated responsibility by the IBHE to develop nursing education programs in southern and southeastern Illinois and the request for funding would allow the bachelor of science in nursing completion program to begin at Olney in the fall of 1984. Approximately 100 registered nurses are expected to begin their studies at that time.

The request for additional funding for economic development seeks $90,000 to extend existing university programs in community and economic development to include the seven county area known locally as the Southwestern Illinois region. It complements a $125,000 request approved last year for similar development programs in the East St. Louis region.

In a statement supporting the request, university officials said, "This proposal would enhance the quality of resources of educational institutions, governmental agencies and the private sector into a unified endeavor designed to enhance the quality of education and resources available to stimulate economic development. Through cooperation among the university and governmental and community agencies, economic needs can be more accurately identified and assistance directed to meet those needs."

EOC closes doors

of the public body held for the purpose of discussing "public business" must be open to the public and notice of each meeting must be posted or announced 24 hours prior to the meeting.

The Open Meetings Act provides that the only issues which organizations conducting public business may discuss in closed session are collective bargaining, the acquisition or disposal of property, pending litigation and the hiring and dismissal of employees.

Pupkash said ways of cutting the EOC budget were discussed, but no definite proposal came from the meeting. He said the dismissal of employees was not discussed.

"If the state is involved with the organization, the Open Meetings Act is in effect," Smith said. "It would apply in that situation."

Pupkash said Ervin disagreed, assuring the EOC-board members Thursday that the meeting was legal.

"It was explained no action was to be taken by the agency tonight and that this type of meeting doesn't have to be open to the press. We will invite the press when we're ready to take action," Pupkash said. "I felt that that was no balloon, the meeting didn't have to be open."

Pupkash said the board members discussed the weatherization program at the closed meeting to determine whether something should be done about the program. He said the DCCA audit of the EOC weatherization program is not completed yet. Nor is the audit of the maintenance assistance program, where irregularities also have been alleged.

He also indicated the board discussed suggestions for the remainder of the year. In April, 140 EOC employees did not receive their paychecks because of a payroll processing crisis.

Pupkash said no minutes were kept of Thursday night's meeting, but a meeting will be called in the near future. Another 38 apartments would be converted from family units to single student units for an occupancy increase of 182 students.

The lack of minutes for the meeting also appears to be in violation of the Open Meetings Act. Minutes must be taken of all meetings, whether open or closed, under the act. Minutes of closed meetings must be available to the public when the public body determines it is no longer necessary to protect the public interest or the privacy of an individual by keeping them confidential.

When a public body does not comply with the Open Meetings Act, any person, including the state's attorney of the county in which such non-compliance occurs, may bring a civil action in the circuit court within 45 days after the alleged illegal meeting.

If found guilty, the court may order the offending public body to require meetings to be open, grant an injunction against future violations, ordering it to make the minutes available to the public and declare null and void final actions taken at a closed meeting.

Pupkash also contended that portions of the act do not apply to EOC because portions apply only to boards of education. However, a review of the act shows that the only sections dealing specifically with boards of education are exceptions to the act. Meetings dealing with campus security, student disciplinary cases and individuals in special education classes may be closed.

Rezonings may bring a civil action in the circuit court within 45 days after the alleged illegal meeting.

Apparently acknowledging Konzen's remark that approval of the rezoning petition is "very important to the existing operation of the mill from a quality and economic standpoint," the commission granted its endorsement, which is to be acted upon by the Granite City Council at its next meeting Sept. 20.

Gillett Communications, Inc. agrees to acquire Post Corp.

Post Corporation agreed in principle Thursday evening to be acquired by a unit of the Gillett Group Inc. of Nashville, Tenn. The cash transaction is valued at $118.6 million.

No policy or personnel changes are planned. An active role will continue to be played by David L. Nelson, executive vice president and chief financial officer.

Post Corp. owns the Press-Record, the Collinsville Herald and other newspapers, including publications in Wisconsin, Massachusetts, Ohio and Florida. It is not affiliated with the St. Louis Post Dispatch.

Headquartered at Appleton, Wis., the firm operates in nine states. It has television and radio stations and commercial printing plants as well as daily, semi-weekly and weekly newspapers.

The acquisition is subject to a definitive agreement being reached, and to approvals by Post Corp. directors and shareholders and the Federal Communications Commission.

TO ISSUE SUMMONS AGAINST WOMEN

Summonses are expected to be issued against two Madison women who apparently caused damage to private and public property during a dispute in Garesche Homes about 7:35 a.m. Friday.

One woman told police that an argument erupted when she went to a neighbor's house to talk about some damage to a child's toy. The second woman reportedly came to the first woman's apartment, where she allegedly broke four storm windows with a crutch.

At that point, the woman who had complained about the broken toy then allegedly took a weight lifting bar and broke all the windows in the second woman's station wagon, plus two windows in her apartment.

BOOK YOUTHS ON ALCOHOL CHARGES

After stopping a vehicle due to noise at 4:05 a.m. Sunday at West Pontoon Road and Braden Avenue, officers found three youths in the car, including a 14-year-old. Also in the vehicle were several cans of beer and a bottle of wine. It was alleged.

Charged with being minors in possession of alcohol were Danny Alan Payne, 22, of 2202 Missouri Ave., and John Alan Powers, 17, of 2212 Illinois Ave. Both were released after posting $32 cash bonds.

The 14-year-old, similarly charged, was released to his mother, who posted a $52 cash bond on his behalf.

Post stock is publicly owned. About 47 percent is held by the Minahan, Walter and Torinus families and Nelson.

There are about 1,800,000 common shares outstanding, and $65 is to be offered for each.

Gillett Group is the holding company for Gillett Communications, which owns television stations in Nashville, Tenn., and Bakersfield, Calif.

Gillett Group's chairman is George N. Gillett Jr. The Post Corp. chairman is V.I. Minahan.

For the second quarter of 1983, Post had net income of $1.6 million or 99 cents a share compared to $1.3 million or 69 cents a share in April-June 1982. Revenue rose to $24.2 million from $20.9 million.

Six-month 1983 profit was $2.1 million or $1.5 a share, compared to $1.4 million or 79 cents. Revenue was $44.7 million, up from $39.3 million in the first half of 1982.

A spokesman said another Gillett Group subsidiary owns Packerland Packing Co., Green Bay, Wis.

Gillett Group is a privately-held company. G. N. Gillett, Jr., its chairman and controlling shareholder, is a Wisconsin native currently residing in Nashville.

ALLEGEDLY HITS TWO PARKED CARS

John M. Overturf, 26, of 106 Kirkpatrick Homes, was charged with failing to reduce speed to avoid an accident and illegal transportation of alcohol following an accident at 9:25 p.m. Saturday.

Overturf's vehicle allegedly struck two autos, parked in the 4000 block of Kirkpatrick Homes, belonging to Letha D. Reed, 3301 Kirkpatrick Homes, and Teresa Agers of Litchfield.

The alcohol-related charge was added when three unopened bottles of beer allegedly were found in Overturf's vehicle.

DAMAGE MADISON POLICE VEHICLE

A Madison police car sustained some damage at 12:05 p.m. Friday when the vehicle was on a traffic control assignment at Edwardsville Road and McCambridge Road.

The squad car was being used at the time to block the roadway to traffic and enable a Madison Alarm crew to complete an installation project when a large metal spindle fell from a line, striking and denting the right rear of the police vehicle.

Q: I wonder if you could answer a question concerning tax returns. Specifically, I'm wondering if there is any sort of statute of limitations concerning the auditing of returns by the IRS. I'm trying to find out so I can determine how long to maintain records.

A: The easiest way to answer your question is to advise you to keep tax records for three years after filing. Right now, in other words, you should have your records back to 1979 (having just filed your 1982 return). To answer your question specifically, there are statutes of limitations regarding IRS audits. Generally, the IRS audits returns within 3 years after the filing date. There are exceptions, however. If it is suspected by the IRS that a taxpayer failed to report an amount equaling more than 25 percent of reported income, it may begin an audit within six years of filing. If a taxpayer failed to file completely, or if fraud is suspected by the IRS, there is no limitation. An audit can be instituted at any time.

Postpone drainage hearing

A public hearing called by the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers for Thursday evening to discuss flood control and drainage in this area has been cancelled. It was announced Friday.

Gary D. Beech, colonel in the Corps, said, "Since the time that the meeting was scheduled, we have determined that revised formulation and evaluation techniques may be required for the various measures we intend-to discuss.

"To avoid giving information that could be inaccurate or subject to change, we have decided that the meeting should be postponed. We hope to schedule another meeting when these matters are resolved."

The workshop was to be conducted in the Collinsville High School Greenwood Campus at the intersection of Cahokia Canal-Harding Ditch segment. Preliminary discussion is planned on drainage in the Granite City, Pontoon Beach and Doherty Slough areas, in addition to Cahokia, East St. Louis, Alton, and Ceresville and other American Bottoms.

Shells down mistake-prone Warrior gridgers

By ROGER KRAMER
of the Press-Record

ROXANA — Roxana football coach Charlie Raich was happy his Shells was able to pull out a 19-14 victory over Granite City High School in the gridiron opener for both teams Friday.

Raich, one of the leading coaches in the Metro-East area, was also glad the Shells didn't have to play Granite City later this season because he sees the making of something good in the Warrior camp this season.

"I'm glad we won't play them any more this season," Raich said. "If they continue to stick together, they're going to be awfully tough the rest of the season."

"He's (Granite City Coach Tom Wyrostek) got an awfully tough job trying to put together two schools. So far, it looks like he's done a pretty good job of it. I'm just glad we don't have the same schedule they do."

Even though the Warriors have gone through a hectic practice season with the consolidation of the schools and the teachers' dispute, Wyrostek thought his troops could have done a bit better in the opener.

"We gave it away to them in the first half," Wyrostek said. "We made a lot of mistakes, and they made a lot of good plays off those mistakes. We stopped them the second half, but we had to after we made all the mistakes in the first half."

Actually, the Warriors weren't that bad in the first part of the game. On their second series of the game, they scored the first touchdown of the game.

On the first two plays of the scoring series, which began on the Warrior 32-yard line, Granite City gained eight yards on a pass play from quarterback Shane Cole to tight end Terry Rujawitz and five yards on a run by James Moad.

The Warriors took the lead on the next play. John Kindle accelerated to his right and ran 35 yards for the touchdown. Moad ran in the conversion.

for an 8-0 lead with 5:01 left in the first quarter.

The quick touchdown may have just charged up the Warriors a little too much. On the second play of the next Roxana series, quarterback Brian Haug faked a handoff to running back Mike Cairns, and the Warriors fell for it bour for a four-yard touchdown pass. This time, Brokaw kicked the extra point, and the Shells took a 19-8 halftime lead.

Although Wyrostek thought Warrior mistakes caused the problem, Raich thought the Shells' offense executed so well that the Warriors couldn't stop the hook, line and sinker.

The Warrior defensive line jumped on Cairns, but Haug still had the ball. Haug kept the ball and ran 80 yards for the Shells' 20 for the touchdown with 3:43 left. The extra-point try failed.

Granite City's defense continued to be perplexed in the second quarter, but it didn't hurt them again until the 5:01 mark in the second quarter.

Once again, the Shells faked a run up the middle on first down on their 40-yard line. Once again, the Warriors went to the right. Haug handed off to split end Mark Hequembourg, and the split end took the ball 60 yards for another Shell touchdown. Once again, the extra point failed.

The Shells didn't have to wait long at all for the next Warrior mistake. Sean Wyrostek moved the kickoff return all the way to the Granite City 48-yard line, but lost the ball on a fumble to the Shells.

After Brian Brokaw ran the ball 10 yards and Haug completed a 13-yard pass to Brian Lagomercino and three running plays by fullback Paul Reed, Roxana scored again.

This time, Haug threw to Hequem-offense anyway.

"Our execution on offense was excellent the first half," Raich said. "I don't think they (the Warriors) knew where the ball was going. We really threw off their defense."

Granite City shut out the Shells in the second half, but the damage had already been done. The Warrior defense then gave the Warriors several chances to score, but Granite City could capitalize only once.

Brokaw lost a fumble on the Warriors' 30, and Eric Graves recovered the fumble for the Warriors. Eight plays later, Wyrostek charged a yard for the Warriors' only other touchdown. Cole tried to pass for a two-point conversion, but the pass was incomplete.

On the Shell's following series, they were forced to punt from their 45-yard line, but the ball was just over the reach of punter Bill Barnard, and Granite City's Tim Moran recovered the snap on the Roxana 23.

Two plays later, the Warriors' hopes were snuffed out. Roxana defensive back Brad Ruden intercepted on of Cole's pass on the Shells' 11-yard line. The Warriors also had the ball with 1:25 left, but lost the ball with 15 seconds left in between Granite City and Roxana at the latter's field Friday. The Shells defeated the Warriors 19-14.

Warriors are tops; shutout Lancers

The Granite City High School soccer team is rated the top team in Illinois, according to the Chicago Sting Newsletter.

Voted as the best team in both the coaches' and the writers' poll, the Warriors have retained the top spot in the poll which they held throughout last season.

In the coaches' poll, the Warriors were tops followed by New Trier, the team the Warriors defeated last year for the state championship. Evanston in third, another state qualifier, Glenbrook North in fourth and Collinsville in fourth.

Other teams of interest include Quincy Senior and Quincy Notre Dame rated eighth and ninth respectively.

In the writers' poll, Granite City is tops followed by Collinsville rated second, Evanston in third, Fremd in fourth and New Trier in fifth. Quincy Notre Dame is rated sixth in the writers' poll and Quincy Senior is rated eighth. Alton-Marquette, not rated in the coaches poll, is rated 15 in the writers' poll.

The Chicago Sting High School Newsletter is published weekly by the Chicago Sting, a Major Indoor Soccer League team. The Newsletter is a service to Illinois teams with the intent to promote high school soccer.

Granite City's top rating in the Newsletter was further evident Saturday as the Warriors whalloped Belleville East 6-0. It was the Warriors third victory of the season and as many shutouts.

Saturday's game was originally scheduled to be played Sept. 17 but was moved up a week because the Lancers are in a soccer tournament next week. The Lancers were undefeated in their first two games before facing the Warriors.

By anyone else's standards, three straight shutouts would be a sign of perfection. However, Baker contends there are still imperfections in the Granite City defense. He also admits they are close to where they plan to be this season.

"Over the years, we have taken pride in our defense in Granite City. Every year we strive to be an excellent defensive team. They have been playing good defense, but we haven't been tested in a highly competitive situation yet."

The Warriors could get that test at Hazelwood East Monday afternoon. He expects Hazelwood East, which was one of the top teams in this week's Suburban Tournament, to provide some solid competition for the Warriors.

The varsity game begins at 4 p.m.

The junior varsity game between the two schools will be played at 4 p.m. at the Granite City field.

Granite City's defense was so strong against the Lancers that Belleville East was able to take only two shots on goal the entire game. Goalkeepers Steve Branding, John Veizer and sophomore Jerry Dutko split the goalkeeping duties and none of them scored a save.

Regular goalie Jeb Blasingame was unable to play Saturday because of an injury.

The Lancers also didn't take any corner kicks, mostly because the ball stayed in Granite City's offensive half of the field for most of the game.

West Frankfort downs Trojans, 20-6

Saturday night the Madison High School football Trojans travelled to West Frankfort and were handed a 20-6 loss in their season opener.

Don Smith, head coach of the Trojans, has already said he expects this season to be a rebuilding year, but the first year head coach is far from discouraged.

Smith said the team they played was probably the best team they will face all season and for three quarters the Trojan defense held the defending South Seven Conference champions scoreless.

"We can only get better," Smith said. "That team wasn't any better than we were, we just made some crucial mistakes. These kids will be coming around. Right now they feel if they're in the game, it's all right. We have to change that attitude."

Smith, faced with the job of turning an inherited 0-4 team around, only took 21 players to the game. Those 21 played offense and defense as well as handled the duties of the special teams.

Smith said the 300 or so fans and the 50 to 60 kids in the West Frankfort sidelines may have intimidated his team a little but was very pleased with the performance of his young team on and off the field.

One of the things that pleased Smith most was that fans and coaches alike went out of their way to comment on the good sportsmanship of the Madison club. He feels his moves to change the attitude of his team have been paying off. "These are all kids who conduct themselves as athletes," he said. "I'm happy with them."

The only score for Madison came in the third period on a play off tackle to Kelly Scrum from 30 yards out.

Two of West Frankfort's touchdowns came in the first quarter. From there the Madison defense held the Redbirds scoreless until 20 seconds remaining in the game when West Frankfort scored their final touchdown.

Madison travels to Freeburg Saturday afternoon for a 1 p.m. kickoff. On Sept. 23 the Trojans will play their first home contest of the season. Kickoff is set for 7:30.

At Wilson Park Sunday 'Old Timers' win Inter-City finale

By BELINDA CONLEY
of the Press-Record

GRANITE CITY — The Inter-City Baseball League topped off its 53rd season Sunday with an Old Timers Game.

The Old Timers, who were managed by Dan Bixler, defeated the combined McDonald's and Chiefs teams, coached by Ray Harris, 10-7.

Old Timer's pitcher Doug Raines, who struck out six batters in the five innings he pitched, held the youngsters scoreless for three innings, but in the fourth, McDonald's went ahead by a score of 3-1.

McDonald's Steve Flicker got two RBI's in the fourth, driving home Milt Roe and Ken Wilson, and then scoring himself on a single to right by Dennis Gurkin.

The Old Timers went ahead for good in the rain drenched sixth inning. Rich Folsik and Larry Corey, both had RBI's and Tom Burg had a two-run homer, as the Old Timers scored six runs on eight hits.

McDonald's tried to make a comeback, but 62-year-old pitcher Bob Bixler, who came in in the sixth, and Bixler's son Dan who replaced his father in the seventh were just too much for them.

McDonald's did manage to score two runs in the sixth, one in the seventh and one in the eighth, but never managed to catch up with the Old Timers.

Dan Bixler scored the Old Timers' winning run in the eighth. Bixler hit a single to right, stole second and scored when McDonald's third baseman Jim Draper threw the ball away, over the first baseman's head.

With his children and grandchildren looking on, Bob Bixler came through in the ninth. Bixler walked, stole a base, and scored to put the Old Timers up 9-7. Doug Raines also scored giving the Old Timers a 10-7 victory.

As McDonald's strolled back to their dugout, Steve Flicker expressed the humiliation of being "Beaten by a bunch of old men!"

The former players competing for the Old Timers were, Rich Folsik, Doug Raines, Larry Corey, Dan Bixler, Tom Burg, Bill Jackie, Bob Shipley, Roger Oakley, and Bob Bixler.

Bucks bombard Stars in MJCCA soccer opener

By ROGER KRAMER
of the Press-Record

GODFREY — Granite City Center soccer coach Larry Petri was a realist Thursday. He expected his GCC Stars to lose to Lewis and Clark Community College.

Lewis and Clark finished second in the National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) finals last year and returned nine players from that squad this season. Petri knew the odds of defeating the Bucks weren't big. He actually expected a 3-0 shutout by the Bucks.

What he got was much worse. The Bucks dominated every aspect of the game and came out with a 7-0 triumph in the season and Midwest Junior College Athletic Association (MJCCA) opener for both teams. The Belleville Area College soccer team moved to GCC, and GCC replaced BAC in the conference.

"I thought we needed a good challenge, and they gave us a very big challenge," Petri said. "It all boils down to that they have a very experienced team coming back and we have a very young team. We got our challenge in a big dose, and now we have to respond to it.

"It looks like we're going to start from scratch. We need to refine everything. Hopefully by the end of the season, we'll be much better. That's why we play 18 games before the playoffs," Petri said.

How much did the Bucks dominate the game? Lewis and Clark outshot GCC 19-3. The Stars had only one shot in the first half.

Although corner kicks were even at five each, the Stars never really had a strong shot at Lewis and Clark goalkeeper John Stahl. Stahl made saves on all three shots.

Granite City also outplayed Lewis and Clark 19-14. The difference wasn't in the number of fouls, but in the manner in which they were made. The Bucks' fouls were aggressive fouls, the Stars' fouls were fouls of exhaustion.

"Our players were very frustrated and very tired, and that's why we fouled in better condition than what we showed."

The Bucks fired quickly and didn't let up for a minute. With just 3:18 gone in the game, sophomore Scott Skirvan took a pass from Collinsville High School graduate Matt Massa and scored. At 7:48, Don Gemmell scored from 30 yards out on an unassisted goal. Skirvan closed the first half scoring by firing a pass from Joe Osvath into the goal at 36:50.

If that wasn't enough, the Bucks' strong depth took over and scored four times in the second half.

Brian Burroughs scored off a pass from Skirvan at 50:36 to boost to 5-0.

Collinsville High School graduate Bob Tejada, a sophomore for the Bucks, then took over for the next two goals. Tejada scored off a pass of Alton High School graduate Scott Admire at 67:57.

Only 22 seconds later, the Bucks were back at the goal. Tejada took Bill Becher's pass and drove it in past goalie Joe Lemaster to make it 6-0.

Steve Stocker scored the final goal at 88:20, and Burroughs picked up the assist.

While the Stars picked up the pieces from the massacre, Lewis and Clark coach Ed Huneke became convinced his team was capable of scoring goals. "We beat them on the ball and we were moving well all over the field," Huneke said. "This margin was surprising. I thought we could have beat them at best 3-0 because Belleville usually gives us a tough game."

"We just didn't move very well at all," Petri said. "Not only did they beat us on the ball, they beat us away from the ball. It was our lack of movement that let us down."

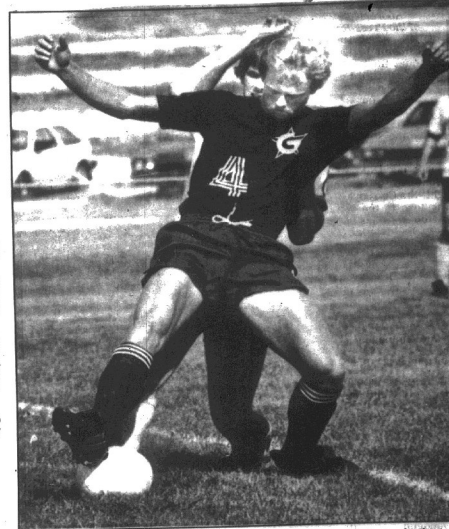

It was the worst defeat for the BAC-GCC team to the Bucks in the history of the rivalry.

"Lewis and Clark showed they are a national caliber team. They're definitely a classy team," Petri said. "I don't think we can get much worse than we were. We have a lot of loose points we have to tighten up before we get better."

The Stars' next game is also the first home game of the season. GCC takes on Florissant Valley in a 3 p.m. game at the former Granite City North soccer field on the campus of GCC.

Florissant Valley won the MJCCA last season, but the Bucks did much better in the NJCAA tournament. Florissant Valley has already defeated Mercer (N.J.), the defending national champion, 1-0 this season.

Warriors finish fourth in Invitational

By MICHAEL BARTELS
of the Press-Record

GRANITE CITY — At 10 a.m. Saturday, the temperature was already 91 degrees, hardly what one would consider running weather.

But behind Granite City High School more than 300 high school boys and girls were scattered near the cafeteria preparing for the Granite City Invitational Cross Country Meet, a premier long-distance running event in Southern Illinois.

Granite City High School distance runners looked good in the event, missing trophies in the 21-team event in both the girls' and boys' events by a single place. The team, however, each picked up a pair of fourths.

In the girls' event, Lora Wiser used a last minute kick to catapult her past O'Fallon's Lisa Judisak and Hazelwood Central's Michelle Johnson in the last ten yards. Wiser finished with a time of 13:22, good enough for fourth place.

Granite City's Michelle Shoemaker also finished in the top ten, finishing the 2.25 mile course in 14:37.

In the boys' event, Granite City's Jim Robertson ran the three-mile course in a solid 15:37, grabbing second place behind O'Fallon's Tim Ryan. Ryan ran the course in 15:27.

Robertson faced Ryan last year in the same meet, with the same results, beating the then Steeler harrier by only four seconds, checking the course at North High School in 14:12.

Warrior coach Pete Robinson was a bit disappointed with the performance of both his teams.

"I thought the boys would do a little better," he said. "I thought we'd be in the thick of things a little bit more."

"I was real disappointed with the girls," Robinson said. He thought several of his girls would place well in the race. "If we get Kim Ames up there where she is supposed to be we'll knock off 30 or 40 points, but any time you get two girls to finish in the top ten in a meet like this you're doing something."

Robertson, one of the top runners in the area, expects his times to improve rapidly now, if he can stay healthy. While the other top runners in the area were training this summer, Robertson was beset by more than his share of bad luck.

The first bout was with bronchitis, then a staff infection and finally a sinus infection. But now he is healthy and thinks he can cut off at least 30 seconds before the end of the season, putting him in with the bulk of the state's top runners.

Robinson was also pleased with the performance of Todd Isom, a sophomore who had never run a cross-country meet before. Isom finished 43rd in the 2.25-mile field.

The field at the meet included some of the top teams in two states. "Both Hazelwood Central and Langlier will vie for the state championships in their respective states," Robinson said after the meet.

Hazelwood Central won the meet with 54 points and Langlier took a close second with 64. East St. Louis finished with 126 points and Granite City came in fourth with 175.

The women's meet was a three-team battle with East St. Louis Lincoln carrying away the honors with 75 points. The battle for second place was won by Hazelwood Central, besting O'Fallon by only two points, 85-87. Granite City grabbed fourth with 117.

In the freshman-sophomore meet held at the Invitational, Granite City placed two in the top 10. Charlie Poerter placed fourth with a time of 18:11 and Steve Houston finished with a 18:17.

Be patient, wives make good net partners

By AL BARNES
of the Press-Record

Here's a little bit of advice for all you young men, newly married and starting out to raise a family.

Don't make my mistake. As regular readers of this column know by now, I'm crazy about the game of tennis. And, heading into the second half of age 72, I still play the game.

But, fellows, do yourself a favor: if your sweet young bride wants to play tennis with her, by all means do so. Don't, as I did, be impatient with your wife. Take time to help her with the development of her tennis game.

My only alibi for my gross bad behavior was: tennis players are, normally, on the lookout to find players better than they in order to "hit with" and thus improve their game.

Man, looking back on those early years of Joyce's and my marriage from 1935 through 1945, I was strictly a clod. I'd not only refuse to hit with her, but just as soon as a male player would show up at the courts, I'd managed to stuff her off.

And now do I regret that. Because Joyce, who was an outstanding swimmer and potentially, with just a modicum of help, could have learned to play tennis, I'm sure, very well, naturally grew discouraged about learning to play tennis and finally quit.

Now, if she had only been encouraged to learn, I'd have someone to play regularly.

Instead, her game is bridge and she regularly beats my brains out with the, pasteboards.

So, you young married

Warrior golfers win a pair

The Granite City High School golf team, coached by Russ Chappell, won its second match of the season Thursday afternoon.

The Warriors, competing on their home turf at Arlington Golf Course, defeated both Wood River and Rox-guys, don't make my mistake: teach your secret to play tennis if she wants to learn.

Representing the Warriors Thursday was Randy Thurman, who carded a 57, Frank Hayes and John Tackett who each managed 41's, and Jeff Pare who shot a 42.

The competition was Greg Marmine of Wood River who shot a 36, just a shot ahead of Granite City's Thurman. In all, eight golfers from each team competed on Arlington's par 36 front nine holes.

Chappell, who's enthusiastic about this year's Warrior squad, said this year's squad may be the best ever in Granite City.

The reason for his optimism is has been the fine consistent performance turned in thus far.

The Warrior upperclassmen have performed well, Chappell said, but it's the consistent performances turned in by the younger athletes, such as sophomore Hayes, that makes the Warrior golf future bright.

The Warriors next match is Tuesday as they meet Althoff and Waterloo Gibault.

Park seeks indoor referees

The Granite City Park District is currently taking applications for referees for their Indoor Soccer Program.

Two referees are used for each game and the pay is $4.50 per game. Persons interested in this job opportunity may call John Lakin, recreation supervisor at 877-3058.

'Crucial mistakes' doom Big Red

By ALAN L. GERSTENECKER
Sports Editor
of the Press-Record

ST. LOUIS — The Dallas Cowboys, America's football team, has what many consider the best two-minute offense in the National Football League. Sunday afternoon, in Busch Memorial Stadium, the Cowboys put together 45 minutes of that "two-minute offense," in the second, third and fourth quarters, and stunned the St. Louis Cardinals 34-17.

For Dallas, it was the second time in two weeks that they've managed a come-from-behind victory. Last Monday night, the Cowboys yielded a commanding lead to the World Champion Washington Redskins but came back in the second half to edge Washington 30-31.

Dallas' comeback Sunday over the Cardinals was not as dramatic, as the week before, but Danny White and company still got the job done. St. Louis aided in Dallas' comeback as the Cards committed four interceptions, two lost fumbles, yielded five quarterback sacks and managed only 53 yards rushing.

In short, it was Dallas' day.

But it didn't start that way. In the first quarter, Dallas experienced a red-hot Big Red. After a driving first possession which ended in a Jim Hart-Ottis Anderson lost fumble at Dallas' 25-yard line, the Cardinals, on their next possession, put six points on the board via a 39-yard pass from Hart to Cardinal wide receiver Roy Green. Neil O'Donoghue's PAT split the uprights.

The Cardinals made it 10-0 on their next possession, their third of the game, as O'Donoghue capped a 10-play 37-yard Cardinal drive which stalled at Dallas' six-yard line with a 23-yard field goal. On fourth and five from Dallas' six-yard line, the highly Irishman split the uprights to improve the Cards' lead to 10-0.

At that point, the Cardinals were picture perfect. Its defense, in particular, continued to defy Tom Landry's Cowboys for the remainder of the first quarter.

Briefly, the Cardinals blanked the Cowboys in the first quarter — not only on the scoreboard, but statistically. In the first quarter, Dallas, historically a fine running team, managed just three yards rushing.

The second quarter, however, was something else.

Dallas wasted little time in scoring in the second stanza. By halftime, the Cowboys more than matched the Cardinals offense to take a 17-10 lead.

On Dallas' second possession of the second quarter, the Cowboys began at St. Louis' 44 yard line. In eight plays, White, mixing running and passing plays to perfection, engineered the Cowboys into the endzone. Cowboys fullback Ron Springs bulled his way in to the endzone from one yard out. Rafael Septien's PAT was good.

On Dallas' next possession, the Cowboys needed just 2 minutes and 43 seconds to advance 72 yards in 11 plays to take the lead. While connected with Drew Pearson on a slant pattern for the TD, Septien made it 14-10 with his successful PAT.

The Cowboys improved upon their lead, 17-10, in the waning seconds of the first half as Septien's wobbly kick successfully split the uprights from 45 yards out.

Even with a seven-point lead, Dallas satisfied. On its second possession of the third quarter, Springs scored his second TD of the afternoon as he escaped into the Cardinal secondary, unmolested, scoring from 19 yards out. The drive, which covered 80 yards in 11 plays, was capped by Septien's PAT.

Dallas closed the door on St. Louis in the fourth quarter as defensive back Bill Bates intercepted Hart's pass at the Cardinal 27 yard line. Bates fumbled into the endzone, but Dennis Thurman recovered for the touchdown, 31-10.

On the ensuing kickoff, the Cardinals' game stopper Stuart Mitchell returned the kickoff 66 yards to the Dallas 34 yard line. Following a both a pass completion and a run to Anderson, Mitchell swept left from five yards out for the touchdown. O'Donoghue's PAT moved the Cards to within 14, 31-17.

The Cowboys managed their final tally of the game 11:57 into the fourth quarter. On fourth and three from St. Louis' six yard line, Septien hit his second field goal of the game. A 24 yarder, it split the uprights to give the Cowboys 34-17 lead, a 2-1 advantage.

The Cardinals, although brilliant in the early going, committed crucial mistakes in the final three quarters. Cardinal Coach Jim Hanfman commented on the mistakes after the game.

"We played some fine football, both offensive and defensive football early, but later we committed too many crucial mistakes. We were ahead 10 zip and then, because things just haven't gelled, we gave it away."

Despite the lopsided score, statistically, the Cardinals didn't play that bad. Dallas managed 19 first downs. St. Louis had 16.

The Cardinals managed 313 yards offensively, while Dallas bettered that total by just 16 yards, 329.

St. Louis managed 65 offensive plays, while Dallas needed just 59 to score 34 points. Rushing was the big difference — Dallas running backs managed 115 yards while St. Louis collected less than half as much, 53.

Hart's net passing total was 280 yards, White managed 214 yards.

St. Louis was penalized once for five yards while Dallas was penalized twice for 20 yards.

The time of possession was nearly equal — St. Louis 31:36, Dallas 28:24.

The Cardinals face San Francisco this Sunday at Busch Stadium. Kick off is at noon.

UP THE MIDDLE. Dallas runningback Timmy Newsome attempts a run up the middle during the fourth quarter of Sunday's St. Louis-Dallas game in St. Louis. Making the tackle is Cardinal linebacker Kurt Allerman. Newsome gained only a yard on the play, but Dallas went on to win 34-17.

Crusaders, Tigers send Warrior netters reeling

By ALAN L. GERSTENECKER
Sports Editor

GRANITE CITY — Granite City High School girls' tennis Coach Dick Harmon said before the season that it was going to take some time before his girls would mature into a winning team.

Well, thus far, Harmon couldn't have been more right.

In two matches last week, one on Thursday and the other on Friday, the Warriors found out just how much they needed to mature before they gained that winning status.

Thursday, against Belleville Althoff, the Warrior netters managed just a single victory as they dropped that pairing 6-1. The Crusaders ripped past the Warriors winning six straight until the final match, third doubles.

In that match, the Warriors' Dawn Schwartz and Maria Parra edged Althoff's Christie Heiligstein and Karra Gasaway 7-5 in the first set.

In the second set, however, things fell apart for the Warrior duo as Althoff came back to even the pairing with a one-sided 6-1 second-set victory.

In the third set, it was do or die. And, the Warriors did.

They came back to defeat Althoff 6-1 to give the Warriors' their only victory of the year, 7-5, 1-6, 6-1.

Afterwards, Parra described the final set: "We changed our game in the third set," she began.

"We laid back until they hit a short ball or a backhand and then we'd move to the net."

Schwartz said the reason they lost the second set was because they "were tired from the first set." Improved strategy and coaching from Harmon, Schwartz said, enabled them to win the third set.

Harmon was impressed enough with their come back ability in Thursday's match that he moved them to first doubles against Edwardsville on Friday.

"The girls play well together," Harmon said. "They're very coachable." Unfortunately on Friday, the duo found first competition much more difficult. In fact, the entire Warrior squad found Edwardsville difficult as the Tigers posted a 7-0 victory over Granite City.

In first singles, Dina Lombardi lost a two-set match to Angie Stokes, 6-0, 6-3. That's the way it began for the Warriors, and that's the way it ended.

In second singles, Sherri Ousley dropped her match to Deen Scherrf 2-6, 1-6. In third singles, Granite City's Angie Pinkston battled the Tigers' Dana Kraft to consecutive 4-6 losses.

It was in fourth singles where it appeared that Granite City may have a victory. The Warriors' Beth Sussan downed Laura Meyers to a 6-4 first-set victory, but things soured for Sussan in the second and third set as Meyers came back to win the pairing 4-6, 6-4, 6-0.

Doubles competition was just as unrewarding for the Warriors. In first doubles Parra and Schwartz lost the first set 5-7. In the second set, things fell apart. Edwardsville's Kim Zupancic and Jacques Scherrf breezed to a 6-0 second-set victory to win the pairing 7-5, 6-0.

In second doubles, Andrea Suarez and Laura Smolar lost consecutive sets 2-6, 4-6. The Warriors' improved play in the second set threatened Edwardsville, but the Tigers managed to hold serve for the victory.

In third doubles, the final competition of the day, the Warrior's Linda Brinen and Robyn Morien fell short of the efforts of Edwardsville's Nikki DeLeonardis and Amy Schlen. DeLeonardis and Schlen won 6-3, 5-7.

Today the girls host Bethalto at 4 p.m. Thus far, the Warriors' only win came against O'Fallon's junior varsity squad. They're 1-2 on the season.

Governor vetoes bill to limit disclosures

Governor James R. Thompson has vetoed legislation that would raise the threshold for reporting election contributions and expenditures.

Senate Bill 682 amends the Campaign Disclosure Law by doubling the threshold for the reporting of contributions and expenditures during any 12-month period from $150 to $300 and for acceptance by local, state, State Central or County Central Committees of contributions or grants or spending during any 12-month period from $150 to $300 and for acceptance by local, state, State Central or County Central Committees of contributions or grants or spending during any 12-month period from $1,000 to $2,000.

"It is my position that the appropriate method of protecting against campaign impropriety is to provide substantial disclosure," Thompson said in his veto message. "Raising thresholds to $300 would decrease disclosure, especially in local elections where total campaign budgets often do not exceed a few thousand dollars. The relaxation that Senate Bill 682 provides is not consistent with that rationale."

The governor vetoed similar legislation last year. The measure now returns to the General Assembly for possible action on the governor's veto.

In other action, the governor signed:

—House Bill 404, which allows the Department of Transportation to lease or permit the use of any lands, rights in land or property interest for development of hydropower for up to 30 years. The measure is needed to allow four municipalities to sell bonds for the development of hydropower facilities. The four projects involve Peru at the Starved Rock Dam, Rockdale at Brandon Road Dam, Channahon at Dresden Island and Marseilles at the Marseilles Dam. Currently, IDOT cannot lease for more than five years.

The bill is effective immediately.

—House Bill 385, which requires townships and municipalities with populations under 500,000 to distribute a share of personal property replacement funds to library districts.

About 189 of the 600 public libraries in the state do not receive replacement funds, even though they received revenues from the now outlived personal property taxes. This bill allows those 189 libraries to receive a share of the replacement taxes proportional to the amount those districts received from personal property taxes.

The bill, effective immediately, was sponsored by Representative Harry "Bus" Yourell of Oak Lawn and Senator Sam Vadalabene of Edwardsville.

MOTORCYCLE MISHAP INJURES WOMAN
Cindy Harris, 19, of 2241 Washington Ave., sustained injuries last week while a passenger on a motorcycle operated by Russell Buick, 26, of East Alton. She was taken by a friend to Wood River Township Hospital for treatment.

The mishap occurred on private property about one-half mile west of Route 111 in Wood River, according to a Madison County Sheriff Department spokesman.

Schoolwork can stress the eyes

While state legislators and education officials, like those in Illinois, are discussing the concept of more and mandatory homework in schools, Dr. Paul Randolph, president of the Illinois Optometric Association, says the visual stress of schoolwork may be causing many children to become nearsighted. Proper precautions, however, can minimize the difficulties of too much visual stress.

Dr. Randolph, of DeKalb, says that a small portion of the nearsightedness in children has hereditary cause, but the remainder is generally the result of stress. Optometric studies show that three percent of 5- to 9-year-olds are near-sighted. This increases to eight percent of 10- to 12-year-olds and to more than 17 percent of teenagers.

The eye stress, according to Dr. Randolph, is the result of the fact that eyes are made for distance seeing. They exert extra effort to focus on close work. To compensate for visual stress during prolonged periods of close work, a child's eyes may gradually adjust to near focusing and good distance vision may be lost.

Parents can help minimize visual stress by providing proper lighting for reading and studying. For desk lighting, Dr. Randolph recommends a 100-watt shaded bulb. Desk lighting should be no more than three times brighter than room lighting and should be positioned to avoid casting shadows on the book. Dr. Randolph also recommends that parents:

—Discourage reading in bed or while lying on other furniture or on the floor. Do, however, encourage frequent breaks during long periods of concentration to look out the window or around the room.

—Plan time for outdoor activities involving distance vision. Even a simple game of tag helps relax the eyes, according to Dr. Randolph.

—Throughout the school years, parents should have children's eyes examined annually, said Dr. Randolph. If a child is developing a tendency towards nearsightedness, an optometrist can prescribe "learning lenses." These lenses have a mild prescription and are worn only when doing close work to make that work easier on the eyes.

Ministerial Association to meet

The Quad-Cities Ministerial Association begins the fall with a program on the issues involved in the recent Granite City School confrontation between the administration and the teachers' Union. "We will have representatives from both sides presenting some of the continuing concerns facing educators both in Granite City and across the state," stated spokesman Rev. Don F. Pierson.

The Quad-Cities Ministerial group meets the first Monday of each month in the Wisconsin Room of St. Elizabeth Medical Center, and this month will be in session today. Participants may go through the cafeteria line and then share in the diverse fellowship that the group offers. "Clergy persons of all persuasions seeking to serve Christ and our communities find this a needed forum to discover area-wide resources and concerns," Rev. Pierson added.

The Rev. Louis Frick of the Niedringhaus United Methodist Church is president of the group; the Rev. James Brown of the St. Peter's U.C.C. is the program chairman. "We are hoping that these ministers who have recently arrived in Granite City will come and get acquainted along with others who share our love for the Lord and the people of our communities," Rev. Frick explained.

Elkettes plan yule party

Plans for the annual Christmas party for members of Elkettes Club were discussed by Mrs. Elsie Rodell, chairman of the event, during the monthly business session of the organization, last week.

She announced the club will again provide a diamond ring as the main prize for the evening. Mrs. Bert Pucker distributed tickets to all members after the discussion.

President Ruth Bischof presided at the session and Joyce Curran read the secretary's report. Helen Schmisser gave the treasurer's summary and Mrs. Dorothy Shepard read current correspondence.

Mrs. Helga Todoroff, membership chairman, proposed the club give lifetime memberships to Mrs. Pauletta Mueller and Mrs. Anna Lois Teaney, which was approved.

A Blue Jean dance will be held at the Elks Lodge on Sept. 17 for members and guests and the Elks installation is scheduled for Sept. 24, the president announced.

Refreshments were served to 35 members followed by games. Prizes were won by Helen Schmisser, Ginny Warfield, Mrs. Shepard, Mrs. Rodell, Rosalia Jenkins, Bess Weiss, Mrs. Todoroff, Mildred Jungels and Marge Hilker.

The next meeting is set for 7 p.m. on Oct. 4, the president noted.

New Salem to host program

New Salem Baptist Church, 1949 Klein Ave., Venice, will sponsor an appreciation program on behalf of the Mosley Singers of Madison, at 6 p.m. on Sunday, Sept. 18, according to the Rev. John H. Williams, pastor.

Junetta Ervin is chairman of the musical event and Charles Collins is the co-chairman.

Area residents are invited to attend the affair, Rev. Williams added.

Army honors to Miss Paula Smith

Paula Smith, daughter of Mable Smith, Madison, has received several awards during her employment at the U.S. Army Troop Support and Aviation Material Readiness Command, St. Louis, where she has worked since April.

Certificates and awards received include Certificate of Training for Career Women, Defense Small Purchase, and Promotion Award.

Leukemia victim is featured in new film

By DONNA KIMBLE
of the Press-Record

A former Madison resident, Mrs. Faith Marie (Nizinski) Signorrelli, who now resides in Beaumont, Texas, and is battling leukemia, is featured in a movie film made at M.D. Adderson Hospital in Houston.

The film is entitled "Research—Challenge of Survival" and is narrated by Jack Klugman, movie and television star. It explores the new developments in the last 10 years.

Klugman talks with researchers on the latest treatment and medical advancements in treating the patients and interviews several of the victims at the Houston hospital, discussing their concept of living with a terminally-diagnosed ailment.

The victims in the half-hour film range in age from 2 years old to people in their 70's. Since the film was made, have all died, with the exception of Mrs. Signorrelli.

FAITH MARIE
SIGNORRELLI

The educational film was made two years ago and was funded by the national offices of the American Legion, which is particularly interested in any disease that afflicts small children.

Other than accidents, leukemia is the number one killer of children, according to the Leukemia Society of America, Inc., with offices in St. Louis.

There are many forms of the disease, each specific type being diagnosed microscopically. Among the types is the acute form that lasts but a few weeks and terminates fatally. It is associated with rapid onset, marked anemia, hemorrhage and severe infections.

Chronic leukemia lasts for many years and people have been known to live for 20 years or more with chronic leukemia. Granulocytic (myeloid, myelocytic, myelogenous)—these include the most frequently encountered leukemias and are associated with increases in the number of white blood cells known as the leukocytes.

Mrs. Signorrelli was born in Wisconsin and was brought to Madison by her parents when she was 2 months old. She attended Madison schools and graduated from Madison High School in 1962.

Her mother, Mrs. Ann Nizinski, still resides in Madison and her father, John, is deceased. She also has a brother, Ted, who is a lieutenant with the Madison County Sheriff's Department.

Both Mrs. Signorrelli and her husband, Fred, worked for Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. in St. Louis until he was transferred to the Houston area two years ago. They are the parents of two children, Michael, who is 18, and 9-year-old Hope.

They reside at 4325 Burlington, Beaumont, Texas, 77066. The former resident was told after arriving in Texas she had leukemia and had only two months to live, but continued to work until a week ago, when she went out of remission.

"Although this is a setback, my daughter is very optimistic about a new drug she is taking and remains active and with a bubbling personality," Mrs. Nizinski said.

During the two-year interval, Mrs. Signorrelli has been hospitalized several times and has undergone chemotherapy, bone marrow tests and been confined to a sterile tent for five weeks.

After the chemotherapy treatment, Mrs. Signorrelli lost her natural blond hair, which later grew back in a brunette shade.

She attributes her living past the projected maximum time to the treatment and medications she has received, and the early detection of the disease.

During a telephone in Houston that raised $450,000, Mrs. Signorrelli appeared on the televised event on behalf of leukemia victims.

The film which includes appearance of Mrs. Signorrelli, as well as other films on the subject—and especially one for children—are available by calling the Leukemia Society of America, Inc., 1612 Big Bend Blvd., St. Louis, Mo. 63117, or calling Kathy Fitzgerald, executive director, at 1-314-644-3633.

There is no charge for the film showing and any organization, school or family of a leukemia victim is invited to call and arrange for delivery of the film.

The St. Louis office is designed to assist people in the St. Louis area and those in Madison, St. Clair and Monroe counties in Illinois. Miss Fitzgerald explained.

The Leukemia Society is funded by donations from patients, their families and other interested individuals. These monies are used to provide funds for the $96,000 budget, which also offers financial aid to patients, the director noted.

Beginning Tuesday, Sept. 13, there will be 16,000 volunteers to begin a door-to-door campaign for funds in the St. Louis area.

TONI ECK
Nevada nurses
select Toni Eck

Toni Eck, a former Quad-City resident, has been selected by the Nevada State Board of Nurses to represent the state at the National State Boards of Nursing in Chicago.

As a supervisor of entry level registered nurses, Miss Eck has been chosen to participate in a nationwide performance update study of registered nurses.

Purpose of the study is to demonstrate that the behaviors tested in the National Council Licensure Examination for Registered Nurses (NCLEX-RN) continue to represent those behaviors necessary for safe and effective care at entry level and to determine the importance of the activity, Miss Eck explained.

The results of the study will assist in rewriting state boards, she added. Miss Eck, a daughter of Margaret L. Eck, 3817 Village Lane, is a 1978 graduate of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville where she obtained her bachelor of science in nursing degree.

She currently holds a charge position at Desert Springs Hospital in Las Vegas, Nev.

DAIRY STORE LOOTED

A burglar broke through two doors Thursday to loot areas of the Reeb's Dairy store, 1537 Johnson Road. Missing are $185 worth of cigarettes, $10 worth of beef steaks and unknown quantities of hair spray, mouthwash and hair cream. An unsuccessful attempt was made to pry open a soda machine.

STRIKES WOMAN

Dorothy Batey, 2127 Lincoln Ave., reported last week that a woman friend of a relative became upset while visiting the house and struck her face. The assailant also pulled Mrs. Batey's hair and banged her head on the floor, she said. A search of the area failed to locate the suspect.

News Notes

U.S. Attorney Frederick Hess of the Southern District of Illinois is warning banks that he will strictly enforce a law requiring them to report unusually large cash transactions. Federal authorities are trying to trace profits from illegal drug trafficking.

Small-claims suits have been filed against Granite City, Wood River and Edwardsville township residents delinquent in paying their mobile home taxes.

The state's bond rating has improved but Standard & Poor has lowered Chicago's general obligation bond rating from A minus to BBB plus, saying the city has been unable to develop a permanent solution to its financial problems.

Pedestrian struck near high school

James C. Gultues, 15, of 2429 Washington Ave. suffered multiple bruises when knocked down by an auto near Granite City High School at 7:53 a.m. Thursday. He was taken to St. Elizabeth Medical Center.

Herman W. Schoeber, 17, of 2522 Westmoreland Drive was driving south on Nameoki Road and was turning toward Madison Avenue when the right front of his car hit the pedestrian.

The motorist said he survived in an unsuccessful effort to avoid the student and was unable to halt his vehicle in time.

Burglars steal food from Prather

A large quantity of food with an estimated value of $404 was taken in a burglary at Prather School, it was reported last week by Richard Brinkhoff, principal.

Among the items missing were two cases of cheese, two cases of ground beef, one case of pork, three cases of chicken, 36 pounds of fish, two cases of pizza and two cases of french fries.

The thieves apparently pried a screened window after pushing a 55 gallon drum underneath to climb up, reports said.

SUSPEND DRIVERS' LICENSES OF TWO

Illinois Secretary of State Jim Edgar has announced that the drivers' licenses of two Granite Cityans have been revoked for convictions of driving while under the influence of alcohol. Both were arrested outside of the state of Illinois.

Licenses suspended were those of Paul D. Carroll, 47, of 1911 Grand Ave., and Pamela Phillips, 25, of 3017 Wayne Ave.

GC schools found 'adequate, efficient'

Madison County Regional School Supt. Harold E. "Gene" Briggs has approved use of Granite City High School, the Coolidge and Grigby junior high schools and nine Granite City, Mitchell area elementary schools for the 1983-84 year.

The Illinois School Code requires the regional superintendent to inspect all public schools prior to the opening of each school year.

The buildings in District Nine were inspected during the summer. All 12 schools visited were deemed to be "adequate and efficient for the conduct of classes."

The Prather Parent-Teacher Association is donating a new copying machine valued at $2,100 to the elementary school in the Prather building. The PTA also plans to purchase a full-service contract for repair and maintenance and repair of the machine in 1983-84 and subsequent years.

Some of the board members attending the annual Illinois Association of School Boards meeting in Chicago Nov. 19-20 plan to tour Chicago schools Nov. 18. Magazine orders for 1984 are being placed with Dermo on the basis of its 8.6 percent discount offer.

The school district is utilizing a $747 cassette record player for installation in related equipment of Granite City High School's foreign language laboratory course.

The purchase will be made from Electronic Specialties, contractor for regular maintenance work on the language lab equipment.

James Dumont, administrative assistant for secondary education, commented that the expenditure "will adapt our existing lab to cassette capabilities. Cassettes have become the conversion unit in the foreign language field."

The district has authorized private facility contracts for the 1983-84 year with seven centers, in the event local special education students need to be assigned to any of them.

The cost per student is $1,659 at St. Joseph's Vocational School, $2,402 at the Champaign Children's Home, $4,080 at the Catholic Children's Home, $4,611 at the Educational Therapy Center, $4,876 at the Association for Retarded Children, $5,138 at Woodhaven and $7,014 at the New Hope Living & Learning Center.

Robert Hollingshead was named an assistant football coach at GCHS and David Ames an assistant soccer coach there.

Resignations were accepted from three honorably dismissed teachers, Charles E. Veatch, John Vanbuskirk and Virgil N. Kambarian Jr. Veatch has accepted employment with the Klein Independent School District in the Houston, Texas, area. Vanbuskirk also has obtained other work.

Kambarian has been hired by the Plaza Southwestern school district as a junior high school social studies teacher and an assistant high school basketball coach. He was a teacher and coach for 13 years in the Granite City school district.

Shirley J. Kramer, a secretary at the board office, is resigning effective Oct. 7. Mrs. Shirley Cunningham, a Frohardt School kindergarten teacher, plans to retire in June 1985.

Mrs. Joyce Gasparovic will continue as a private transporter of handicapped students. She drives three Granite Cityans and one Venice student to the high school deaf program in Collinsville.

At Fuller will transport a student to a Bethalto school district bus that goes to a school in St. Louis.

Charles Collins will be utilized as needed to drive students to county educational programs.

Nick Lucido, Mike Lombardi and Joe Barbieri will be on the Granite City Citizens Forum at a Board of Education meeting.

Lucido asked that agendas be made available to the group to aid it in being "a responsible and informed citizens in government organization." Forum president is Don Conley.

Arrangements for the public to obtain such information were outlined.

School employees were welcomed to the new school year with the following comments by Supt. B.J. Davis: "Welcome back to what may be a most challenging year for District Nine. All of us are called upon to continue to provide the highest quality education for our deserving students, but must do it with much less—less revenue, less facilities, and less staff."

"There were times in recent months when the tasks seemed insurmountable. However, I was constantly encouraged and reassured as I observed staff members working on their own time and cooperating with each other to find solutions to problems—and to accomplish the tremendous amount of work needed to open school."

"We miss the talents of our visible staff who will not be with us this year. "Fortunately, however, we are blessed in that those who remain are also exceptionally talented, experienced and professional."

"I appeal to each one of you to readily and liberally share your ideas and resources with your fellow staff members."

"Never, in my memory, has the need for teamwork been more essential to our tasks and the fulfillment of our common objectives. I sincerely appreciate the effective efforts you have put forth in launching the 1983-84 school year. Best wishes for your happiness and continued success."

TROUBLEMAKER

BULLIES CUSTOMER

Responding to a call that a fight was taking place at the Sonic Station, 1817 Madison Ave., last week, police arrived to find the troublemaker had left.

Persons at the station reported that a man started yelling racial slurs at Art Rodgers of Madison, while the latter, accompanied by family members, was getting gasoline.

When Rodgers tried to leave to avoid further protests, the troublemaker jumped on Rodgers' car. The bully left the station after being advised that police were on the way. A search of the area failed to locate the car in which the man was riding, reports said.

Church Women to hear Sister Hemen

Sister Mary Jo Hemen O.P. will lead Church Women United's annual Fall Forum on Wednesday, Sept. 14, from 9:30 a.m. to 2:15 p.m., at Central Christian Church, 2020 Johnson Road.

In recognizing 100 years of service to the children of Illinois, the society also will look ahead to continuing efforts to meet the needs of children and families.

Featured speaker will be Dr. Richard E. Thompson of Chicago. Dr. Thompson was formerly in the private practice of pediatrics and is now president of Thompson, Mohr and Associates, a firm providing educational and consultative services in hospital administration. The community is invited to share in this celebration and reservations can be made by writing to the Children's Home and Aid Society, 1002 College Avenue, Alton, Ill. 62002.

Founded in 1883, the society has become the largest non-profit, non-sectarian child care agency in the

Hayrides, dance for GC seniors

Hayrides and dancing will highlight an evening of fun for senior residents of Granite City on Wednesday, Sept. 14, as announced today by Granite City.

Public hearing slated on harassment of students

Rep. Jill Zwick (R-Duquesne), head of the Education Committee of the Illinois Commission on the Status of Women, today announced a public hearing on sexual harassment of students in grades K-12. The hearing will be Wednesday, Sept. 21, in room 118 of the State Capitol, Springfield, from 1 to 4 p.m. HB 1556, which amends the School Code to prohibit sexual harassment of students by school personnel, also will be discussed.

Rep. Zwick said, "Sexual harassment of students creates an intimidating, hostile and offensive educational environment and can seriously affect their educational progress." She noted that the House Rape Study Committee has reported on a number of cases of sexual harassment of students and the resistance of the school administration to respond to the problem.

Rep. Barbara Flynn Currie (D-Chicago), Commission Chairman pointed out, "Students, particularly young students, are reluctant to complain because they are afraid of reprisals."

She added that the commission also has supported legislation prohibiting sexual harassment in employment (HB 235) and in higher education (HB 422); both of these bills passed the General Assembly this session and were recently signed by the governor.

"Currently HB 1556 is in interim study in the House Elementary and Secondary Education Committee," Rep. Zwick said, "and we hope to smooth out any problems with this bill so students are protected and school personnel are comfortable with the complaint-enforcement procedures."

Rep. Zwick said, "Testimony from teachers, students, union representatives, attorneys, parents and administrators, rape crisis counselors and others will help us to address this problem legislatively and to determine what other action may be needed."

Persons wishing to testify may contact Judith Barringer at the Commission of 300 West Monroe Street, Springfield, Ill. 62706, telephone 1-217-786-4162.

The paratransit program to study the status of women and to make recommendations for constructive change.

All meetings and hearings of the Commission are open to the public.

Metals coils fall, unwind along road

An unusual visual effect was in evidence along I-55 in Granite City last night when steel coils fell from a truck and unrolled along the highway.

Granite City police went to the highway area near and to the north of West Pontoon Road at 3:50 p.m. They found the coils had unrolled for a quarter-mile distance.

Officers directed traffic at the scene until the bright metal could be moved off the roadway into a ditch in the median area immediately west of the northbound lanes.

Some of the steel was cut into small sections to facilitate loading into trucks after the mishap. Efforts were made Friday to complete the task of hauling it away.

A preliminary investigation showed that the vehicle might have been a northbound Alliance Steel Building Systems truck that turned onto Interstate 270.

All apparently had fallen onto the pavement when the load shifted.

BOY, 14, STRUCK BY CAR, INJURED

Jeffrey Creek, 14, of 2123 Lee Ave., was injured at 2:30 p.m. Friday when he reportedly ran into the street from the front of a parked truck and was struck by a car in the 1500 block of Netherland Avenue.

Jeffrey was taken by his mother to St. Elizabeth Medical Center for treatment.

Karen A. Warfield, 38, of 2553 Westmoreland Drive, was driving the eastbound auto involved.

Township Supervisor Nelson Hagnauer.

The event will be the fifth annual hayride, winner roast and dance, scheduled to start in Wilson Park at 5:45 p.m.

All residents of Granite City who are 55 years of age or older are invited to attend the festive occasion.

Hot dogs, baked beans, corn law and other picnic fare will be served beginning at 5:45 p.m., with music for dancing provided from 6:30 p.m. until 9:30 p.m.

Hayrides will be furnished on a continuous basis throughout the evening, the supervisor noted.

In the event of rain, the dance and winner roast will be transferred to the Granite City Township shuttle buses will be in operation that evening for persons without their own transportation, Hagnauer advised.

Those wishing to ride the buses are being asked to make reservations as soon as possible by calling 877-5584.

Bus seating must be reserved prior to noon, Sept. 21.

Low interest loans here went quickly

Thirty-year mortgages at 10.55 percent figure to have lots of eager takers. Indeed that seems to be the case. A survey of the five area lenders who were allocated shares of the proceeds of the $6.5 million state bond issue that helped finance the attractive program, proves it.

Lomas and Nettleton at its Granite City office reported that demand was already spoken for before the allocation was announced Sept. 1. The firm got only $200,000 of the $6.5 million.

Delmar Financial Mortgage Company, a St. Louis firm doing business in Granite City, said it got only $500,000 of the money. The spokesman said their policy is to not keep waiting lists, and had no information on how many applications they had.

MidAmerica Bank of Edgemoor said "it didn't take long to swallow up their $400,000 allocation." Bill Edgemoor, loan officer, said, "As soon as we got here Sept. 1, there were people waiting."

He said the company had sent preapplications. He said there was a possibility that all of St. Louis County would be declared a "targeted area" for an additional allocation from the Illinois Housing Authority. At present, he said, only the Scott Air Force Base area and parts of East St. Louis, Brooklyn, Washington Park, Centerville, Sauget and National City are targeted.

First Bank Trust Company of O'Fallon Chairman John Rohleder said First Bank and Trust was allocated $1.5 million of the loan money. He said he expected the requests for the low interest loans to quickly use up the available money.

Germania Federal of Alton got $1 million of the money. Within an hour after notification of the allocation the firm had taken all the applications it could cover.

Incident ends in 4 charges

Michael K. Heatherly, 21, of 147 Woodlawn Ave., was charged with theft, two counts of battery, and an unlawful use of a weapon following an incident at Charlie's Restaurant, 3120 N. Main St., at 2:30 a.m. Saturday.

Police arrived on the scene to find Dennis Heston, a restaurant employee, and a security guard holding Heatherly. A second man also was present.

Meyers alleged having seen a man, later identified as Heatherly, enter the restaurant and remove a brass candleholder and candle from a table and start to leave. Asked where he was going, the man said he was leaving and was advised to stay because police were being contacted. An argument erupted and continued outside under the canopy area, it was reported.

The second man, later released without charges pending further investigation, said that Heatherly should be able to leave. At that point, the security guard arrived and a struggle ensued between Meyers and Heatherly.

Told again that police were enroute, Heatherly allegedly grabbed the security officer and threw him on the hood of a vehicle, damaging the car. The vehicle is owned by an Edwardsville woman.

Both Heatherly and his companion were taken into custody by officers. The unlawful use of a weapon charge was added when it was alleged Heatherly had a pair of brass knuckles in his possession, which were turned over to police.

Heatherly was released at 10:15 a.m. Saturday on a $4,000 recognizance bond by order of Associate Judge Norman Kinder.

Michael Denham escaped a stabbing attempt at 2:35 a.m. Friday as he entered his home at 2531 E. 25th St. Kelly Lee Crouch, 19, of 2908 Kirkpatrick Homes allegedly wielded a folding knife and also used his right hand to break a storm window. He was charged with property damage and aggravated assault.

Also arrested at the scene were Carl Graham, 24, disorderly conduct, James R. Graham, 19, charged with trespassing, disorderly conduct and resisting arrest. Both reside at 2544 E. 24th St.

Crouch had cuts on the right hand and wrist.

STABS MAN, 24, WITH SCISSORS
Dewey Mays, 24, of 923 Webster St., Madison, was admitted to the intensive care unit at St. Elizabeth Medical Center at 1:20 a.m. Sunday, after suffering multiple puncture wounds to the chest and a superficial laceration to the right earlobe.

Interviewed by Madison officers at the hospital, Mays reported having been stabbed in the chest with a pair of scissors while in the living room of his home.

The stabbing occurred during an argument with a relative and he was brought to the medical center by another relative, he said.

Watters says waterway users should pay cost of all improvements

(From the American Waterways Operators Inc. Newsletter)

"It is not likely that any serious consideration will be given to much needed improvements in our waterways until a cost recovery system is in place," Howard A. Watters, deputy maritime administrator for Inland Waterways and Great Lakes told attendees at an inland waterways conference recently.

Watters elaborated on his statement by saying that this stance was not a threat, but rather a description of the current state of financing for water projects. Watters spoke on behalf of his agency — the Maritime Administration — and the Reagan Administration, when he delivered the keynote address at the First International Inland Waterways Conference and Trade Show, held in Louisville, Ky.

Watters said that the administration offers three reasons for its position on user taxes. "Two major philosophical reasons," and one "very practical one." The administration's first justification for cost sharing, according to Watters, is fairness. "It is only simple justice that profit-making businesses should pay for their share of the facilities they use, rather than having the general taxpayers assume their costs," he said.

Secondly, Watters said the "free marketplace" should be used for determining which facilities should be built and maintained. Decisions on water projects should be "undistorted by excessive subsidization, because, according to Watters, "we can't afford the pork barrel anymore."

Finally, Watters said, the federal government can no longer afford to pay the entire cost of waterway projects. "We need to find new sources of money to improve our waterways," he said.

Watters suggested that the amount of attention the waterways industry is devoting to increasing user taxes is keeping the industry highlighting what local officials feel best describes their towns will make these professionals aware that the state and the towns in it are serious and sincere in their efforts to attract this fast growing industry to Illinois," he added.

The five-year-old conference attracts professionals and high technology companies within a 450-mile radius. A popular feature is Midcon's "Professional Program" in which 100 individuals provide overviews on the latest trends and techniques in this industry in 22 sessions. Topics this year include "Protecting and Exploiting Technical Developments: Basics for Engineers and Entrepreneurs," "Legal Issues in the Electronics and Computer Industries," and "Hybrid Thick Film Manufacturing."

"This is a well-established highly-regarded conference," Watters said. "Not only will it benefit us in our marketing efforts but Illinois companies can learn what's new and what the future holds for the electronics industry."

Persons interested in attending the event, including the keynote breakfast and the All-Industry Reception, Wednesday, may contact Nancy Hogan or Kent Keller at Electronic Conventions, Inc., 810 Airport Blvd., Los Angeles, Calif., 90045, telephone 1-213-727-2965.

New Beginning store aids rehab projects

Patrons of the New Beginning Budget Mender Store at Third Street and Madison Avenue, Madison, will be aiding the rehabilitation of persons involved in chemical dependency programs. It was announced this week.

Dan Huff, store manager, said the store is being operated under a not-for-profit corporation charter for the purpose of raising funds to support the education and rehabilitation of persons involved in alcohol and drug abuse programs.

Located in the former Reese Drug building, the store primarily offers preowned furniture and appliances, but does have some new merchandise, Huff said.

Local businessmen are serving on the New Beginning Advisory Board and the store's management is working closely with personnel from the staffs of Coordated Youth Services and ARCH House, the manager explained.

Store hours are from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. Monday through Saturday and the public is welcome. Huff said, new residents wishing to donate used appliances or furniture to the New Beginning Store may call 877-8861 for free pickup services. Donations are tax deductible, the project manager advised.

Students will learn to rap and will participate in various rope exercises. All students will be closely supervised by trained instructors and safety will be emphasized.

The Sept. 17 session will introduce students to rope rescue and prepare students for the Sept. 24 session to be held at Pierre Marquette State Park. At the state park, students will rap and participate as members of rope rescue teams.

There will be a $40 fee for the seminar and all equipment will be furnished. Participants must be 15 or older.

For more information, interested persons may contact Dennis Henson, 601 Hillboro Ave., Edwardsville, telephone 1-656-6119.

Sept. auto licenses to expire soon

Illinois Secretary of State Jim Edgar is reminding motorists that midnight Friday, Sept. 30, is the deadline for car owners to renew their registrations expiring in September to display the purple 1984 stickers in the upper right corners of their rear license plates.

"Approximately 716,000 renewal applications have been mailed to registered owners who are currently displaying the orange 1983 stickers that expire in September," Edgar said.

Applications made by mail should be in the secretary's office no later than Thursday, Sept. 15, to ensure delivery by the deadline.

Stickers may be purchased over the counter at Secretary of State facilities in Springfield and Chicago, and at more than 1,400 financial institutions, including 617 banks, 100 savings and loan associations, 16 credit unions and about 600 Chicago area currency exchanges.

Anyone driving a car with an expired orange, September 1983 sticker will be subject to a fine for improper registration.

For further details, interested persons may contact the Department of Conservation, Bureau of Lands and Historic Sites, Firewood Collection Program, 524 South Second St., Springfield, Ill., 62706.

Collectors must use their own equipment to cut and haul the wood. The wood may be taken only from dead and downed trees, and the wood must be for their personal use.

Planning ahead cuts income tax

Budgeting, economizing and planning are sensible ways to save money. The Internal Revenue Service wants taxpayers to realize that, while there are no bargains or discounts on taxes, there are legal ways to cut down on taxes.

The secret to "a penny saved" on taxes is good planning. The IRS has prepared this question and answer list to alert taxpayers to the money-saving benefits of good tax planning.

Q. If you had to sum up in just a few words how all taxpayers could get the most tax "breaks" what would you say?

A. Keep good records all year. Even if you've always filed the 1041A, or short form, and have never been required to have more than your W-2 at tax time, your circumstances could change during the year and you might want to itemize deductions, for example.

Q. I've never had book-keeping—I don't know how to begin to keep good records. Do I have to keep ledgers and records like that?

A. A good recordkeeping system is one that works for you. To be good, a system need not be formal or in a ledger, although for some people, that is a good system.

A manila envelope or shoe box set aside in January for receipts and records, marked "Taxes" and the year, and kept for at least four years, is a good system for many.

Q. Where do I begin? I don't know the first thing about tax planning.

A. If you have large investments—stocks, bonds, real estate holdings, for example—you might want to look into a professional investment or tax counselor.

In that case, be as accurate as you would in selecting a doctor or other professional.

Q. How can I figure how much tax I have to pay?

A. Tax is based on taxable income, that is, all of your income, minus such things as moving expenses, dividend exclusions, excess itemized deductions, etc. The idea is to keep your taxable income to a minimum, and do it legally, or to take advantage of allowable tax credits, which directly reduce the amount of tax owed.

Q. What are some of the tax credits available to reduce my taxes?

A. There are a number of credits, but of course, not everyone qualifies for every credit. Among those available are Child and Dependent Care, Earned Income, Credit for the Elderly, Paid Contributions, residential Energy, and overpaid Social Security Tax.

Q. What are some ways to reduce my adjusted gross income?

A. The following are only some of the ways for persons in certain situations to reduce adjusted gross income:

If you are a married couple and both work, generally you may reduce your income by 5 percent of the qualified earned income of the spouse with the lesser earnings up to $1,500.

If you itemize deductions, reduce income by the excess of $2,300 if you're single; $3,400 if you're married, filing a joint return; or $1,700 if you're married, filing separately.

If in business for yourself (not an employee of someone else), deduct expenses incurred in your trade or business.

When traveling away from your home and business, deduct the cost of meals, lodging and traveling expenses.

If reimbursed for job-connected expenses, deduct the amount of the expense.

For those who are "outside salespersons," deduct the job-related expenses.

If divorced and paying alimony, deduct the amount of the alimony.

When renting, reduce income by the expenses of keeping the property.

If working overseas, deduct up to $75,000 of your foreign earned income, plus certain amounts based on foreign housing costs.

Q. How can I get information on these credits and adjustments to income to see if I qualify?

A. You can write to the Internal Revenue Service and ask for free Publication 910, "Taxpayer's Guide to IRS information and Assistance."

It lists the publications IRS will send you on request, and also contains an alphabetical list of topics with references to particular publications in which that information appears.

Q. Is it really legal for me to try to pay less tax?

A. Generally, yes. While there are rules about paying taxes, there are also alternatives for paying less tax. Much depends on your motives and methods. Those who are devious and set out to defraud the government are not acting legally, and the penalties for this are severe.

The right idea is to pay what you owe—no more, no less.

Q. Why must I prove I'm right? Does the IRS automatically think I cheat?

A. The IRS does not automatically assume that taxpayers cheat. It does expect taxpayers to fulfill their legal obligation of keeping adequate records to support items on their tax returns. IRS is not the only organization that expects you to keep good records to prove our points: department stores, insurance companies, stockbrokers—even the grocery store—expect the same.

If you've done what is right, you have nothing to fear from IRS. Springfield district officials assert.

 BURNS AND ALLEN

AMERICA'S BELOVED HUSBAND-AND-WIFE TEAM MADE THE TRANSITION FROM VAUDEVILLE TO RADIO AND LATER FROM RADIO TO TELEVISION WITH GEORGE'S WRY HUMOR (AND EVER-PRESENT CHAR) AND GRACIE'S FEIGNED DAFFINESS.

AS A SAS, GRACIE ONCE SEARCHED FOR HER MISSING SPOUTER, WALKING INTO THE MIDDLE OF OTHER CBS RADIO PROGRAMS IN HER SEARCH. WHEN SHE WALKED INTO THE NATIONAL BROADCASTING COMPANY, NBC SAID SHE COULDN'T MENTION HER SPOUTER... BUT VALLEE DID AND NBC CANCELLED HIS SHOW.

IT'S SO... 305-306... HAPPY

MEL BLANK'S PORTRAIT OF THE HAPPY POSTMAN (A CHARACTER WHO SPOKE OF CHEERFUL THINGS IN A JOYFUL MANNER) WAS A REGULAR FEATURE OF THE SOURCE AND SINK SHOW.
